

1st July 2016

Dear parent / carer

You may have become aware from media coverage that the National Union of Teachers has called for industrial action on Tuesday 5th July 2016.

This action is not against the school itself but is part of industrial action organised by the trade union about changes to the national terms and conditions of their members.

Despite this action it is anticipated that the school will remain open as usual. There may be a little disruption to the normal school timetable but in such instances students will be fully supervised and allowed either private study/revision and the opportunity for appropriate reading depending upon their circumstances. Students may bring with them to school on this day a suitable reading book.

So it is business as usual at Hodgson next Tuesday. Thank you in advance for your continued support.

Yours sincerely

TONI ROETHLING
