

Dear Parent/Carer

Please see below this week's updates from school.

Presentation Evening

Presentation Evening took place last night for the class of 2022. Our keynote speaker was an ex-student called Chris Conway who has recently been awarded an MBE for dedication to the homeless. Chris spoke eloquently about his journey since leaving Hodgson and of the important lessons he learned when he was with us. It was absolutely fantastic to see so many of our ex-students coming and to celebrate their success and to listen to such an inspirational speaker.

Coats

As the cold and very wet weather continues more and more students are wearing big coats and extra layers to keep warm. Please will you make sure that your child's name is stitched or written on to their garments to make sure there is no confusion as to what belongs to who.

Mobile Phones

Just a polite reminder about the school mobile phone policy. Mobile phones should not be seen, used or heard during the school day or on the school premises. Failure to adhere to this rule will result in phones being confiscated and the student will be sanctioned. There have been some instances of students contacting home during the school day for a variety of reasons, I ask you not to encourage this. In an emergency, parents wishing to contact their child can leave a message at reception. Also, if a child needs to contact their parents or carers they may use our telephones to do so. If bringing a phone to school, students are actively encouraged to bring only an inexpensive phone.

Pre-Loved Uniform

If any of you have any uniform that your child/children no longer use please bring it in to school. We are putting together a bank of pre-loved items that can be used in school.

Hodgson Christmas Festival

Don't forget about the Hodgson Christmas Festival taking place on Friday the 9th of December. Thank you very much for all the donations we have received so far, please keep sending items in and I hope to see as many of you as possible at the event.

Have a great weekend

Mr I. Siddall
